Safety Corner

Saying "no" is a key part of parenting. It helps children learn boundaries, self-control, and respect. While it can be difficult, especially when faced with tantrums or pleading, being consistent is essential. When children learn that "no" sometimes means "maybe" or "yes if I push hard enough," they're more likely to challenge rules and test limits. Staying firm, calm, and kind helps your child feel secure and understand that boundaries are there for a reason. You might say: "I understand you're upset, but the answer is no." or "That's not an option right now, but you can do this instead." Children thrive when they know what to expect. Saying no, when it matters, and sticking to it, teaches valuable life skills like patience, respect, and emotional resilience.

WHAT WE HAVE BEEN DOING IN SCHOOL THIS WEEK

Nursery

We have really enjoyed ending our week with our sing-a-long to our parents. We've watched the children grow in confidence, curiosity, and independence as they've explored, played, and learned together. It's been a joy to see each child flourish. Thank you for all your support this year, we're so proud of everything the children have achieved. Have a lovely relaxing holiday together.

Reception

This week we did some addition sums, and filled in the missing numbers when counting in tens. We continued to write down our memories of Reception. On the art table we made an end of year crown. On the playdough table we made playdough ice-creams and lollies. We recapped 4 seasons and what we knew about them so far. We explored and compared summer to the other seasons – temperature, weather, growth. We asked children to make observations they have seen recently. We used small world to make summer scenes.

Year 1

As we come to the end of a fantastic year in Year One, we've been reflecting on all the wonderful learning that has taken place. In English, the children explored poetry and proudly created an acrostic poem all about Year One. In Maths, we deepened our understanding of place value, and in Topic, we had thoughtful discussions about why boats today are safer than the Titanic. We are so proud of each and every one of the children – they have been a pleasure to teach. It's been a joyful year full of curiosity, creativity, and growth, and we wish them all the very best as they sail into their Year 2 adventure!

Year 2

We have had a very busy week this week! We presented our island projects to the Year 1 children and explained what we have been learning about. We added the cabs to our vehicles using the junk modelling we brought in from home. We created our animal 3D sculptures and added tissue paper to them. We had an amazing time performing our play to our families and we hope you enjoyed it!

WHAT WE WILL BE DOING IN SCHOOL NEXT WEEK

- Nursery We will be sharing our favourite memories in nursery and looking back at all our favourite things we have learnt.
- Reception Next week we will be having our reward afternoon, making superhero masks and designing capes. We will be continuing to reflect on our time in Reception. We will play various maths games and enjoy some books together.
- Year 1 We will be exploring all the learning we have been done this year.
- Year 2 Next week we will be celebrating our time in Year 2. We will be looking back on our favourite memories of the year.

HOMEWORK CHALLENGES

Please spend time with your child to explore this week's challenge. The teachers will talk to the children about what they have learnt at home every Friday.

Nursery:

Draw a picture of something you have enjoyed from Nursery, help an adult prepare a snack or tidy-up, you're so grown up now!

Reception:

Can you draw something about you that you would like your new teacher to know e.g. it could be about an interest or about a pet that you have, or a favourite food that you like.

Year 1:

As we come to the end of the year can you make a card for someone in the year group about something you are proud they have achieved?

Year 2:

Can you write down your favourite memory of Year 2 ready to share next week?
